

REVISED ROAD MAP

FREQUENCY OF MEETINGS

The Constitution Review Committee will meet as and when required. All meetings will be held either in private or as town hall set up both virtually and physically. Dates for town hall meetings to be held virtually or physically will be as per schedule below while private meetings will be agreed from time to time by the Working Group. Provided all members of the Constitution Review Committee agree minor changes to the Constitution, these can be agreed via e-mail without the need to hold a formal meeting. All substantive and significant changes or proposal amendments to the Constitution must be done through a formal meeting of the CRC.
